

ANDY HOARE. SOUND RECORDIST

SELECTED TV CREDITS

In Vogue: The 1990's – Raw / Vogue Studios / Disney Plus

Directors: Hugo Macgregor / Matt Hill

Pulling from industry experts, cultural subjects and cataclysmic pop culture moments, this series tells the story of how high fashion and mainstream culture came to influence one another in the 1990's.

Columbia: The Final Flight – Mindhouse / BBC / CNN

Director: Lizzie Kempton

Combining first hand testimonies with previously unseen archive this film charts the in depth story of the Columbia space shuttle tragedy in 2003, when the shuttle disintegrated during re-entry to Earth's atmosphere.

Finding Michael - Shine / Disney Plus

Director: Tom Beard

In 1999 Michael Mathews became the youngest Briton to summit Mount Everest, but three hours after he reached the top of the world, aged just 22, he disappeared into blinding snow and his body has never been found. 23 years later his brother, entrepreneur and broadcaster Spencer Mathews sets out on a journey to Everest to find Michael.

The Louis Theroux Interviews (S1 & 2) - Mindhouse / BBC2

(Series 1, 3 Eps - Judi Dench / Katherine Ryan / Rita Ora)

(Series 2, 3 Eps - Anthony Joshua / Raye / Asley Walters)

Series Directors: Tom Barrow / Alex Kohler

Louis Theroux in conversation with some of the most iconic names in the world of entertainment

John and Joe Bishop: Life After Deaf - South Shore / ITV

Director: Charlie Melville

This one hour film documents John Bishop and his son Joe, who lost most of his hearing at the age of 15, as they embark on a journey to understand more about the Deaf community.

The Real Mo Farah - Atomized / Red Bull Studios / BBC1

(Winner - Best Documentary, Broadcast Awards)

Director: Leo Burley

Sir Mo Farah reveals the shocking truth about his childhood, the journey he made from Somaliland to the UK as a young boy, and the subsequent years that led to him winning two gold medals at the London 2012 Olympics.

The Fall of The House of Maxwell - Expectation / BBC2

Director: Daniel Vernon

Fifty years of mysterious deaths, Royal scandals, sexual exploitation and global corruption – One family.

Simon Schama's History of Now - Oxford Films / BBC2

Director: Hugo MacGregor

Simon Schama explores how artists and writers have led the fight for truth and democracy in his lifetime, often at great personal cost.

Art That Made Us - Clear Story / BBC2

Directors: Sam Anthony / Jude Ho / Russell Barnes

How works of art from Britain's past have shaped us. Some are surprising, others familiar, but all are at the heart of dramatic moments of change.

The Man Who Bought Cricket - South Shore / Sky

Director: Stuart Bernard

Investigating the unbelievable story of Allen Stanford, who conned his way into billions of dollars and used his fortune to lure the English cricket team to a 'winner takes all' one-off game against the West Indies.

Blair & Brown: The New Labour Revolution – BBC2 (Part of)

Director: David Belton

A documentary about the rise of New Labour with all the key politicians of the time providing a distinctly intimate window into the stunning rise of Tony Blair and how he succeeded in making an unelectable party victorious for three terms in office.

Gods of Snooker - Mindhouse / BBC2 (Part of)

Directors: Martin Fuller / Becky Lomax / Edward McGown

For a remarkable period in the 80's, snooker became a national obsession, eclipsing even football. This is the story of the characters who turned the game into a soap opera, catapulting it from smoky halls to the public conscience.

Prince Phillip: The Royal Family Remembers - Oxford Films / BBC1 (Part of)

Directors: Faye Hamilton / Matt Hill

Filmed throughout his one hundredth year - before and after his death - this landmark portrait of the Duke of Edinburgh features only those who knew him best: his family and closest staff.

Nail Bomber: Manhunt - Expectation Factual / Netflix

Director: Daniel Vernon

The story of how far-right extremist David Copeland detonated three improvised bombs in Brixton, Brick Lane and Soho over three weekends in 1999, killing three people and injuring 140 others.

The Unbelievable Story of Carl Beech – BBC2

Director: Vanessa Engle

The jaw-dropping story of Carl Beech, a former nurse from Gloucester, who claimed he had been sexually abused by a group of prominent men in the 1970's and 80's.

The Romantics and us - Oxford Films / BBC2

Director: Hugo MacGregor

Historian Simon Schama shines a light on the multi-faceted legacy of Romanticism, looking at painters such as Gericault, Caspar David Friedrich and Delacroix, musicians such as Chopin and Schumann, and poets such as Wordsworth, Coleridge and Shelley. (3 x 1hr)

Imagine... Jo Brand: No Holds Barred – BBC1

Director: Katy Homan

Alan Yentob looks into the life of comedian Jo Brand, marking a diverse career which began in 1980's stand-up comedy and has moved through writing, performing and presenting.

The Final Minutes of Flight 93 - Naked TV / History Channel

Director: Duncan Bulling

A forensic look at the final moments of flight United 93, which crashed into a field in Pennsylvania during an attempt by passengers and crew to regain control of the aircraft, killing all on board including the four hijackers.

First Ladies - October Films / CNN (Part of)

Directors: Kat English, Kim Duke

(Eleanor Roosevelt, Lady Bird Johnson, Hilary Clinton.) Exploring how each lady was transformed by the role of First Lady, using interviews, archival footage and recreations to uncover pivotal moments in each woman's tenure. (6 x 1hr)

The Murder of Jill Dando – BBC1

Director: Marcus Plowright

Ahead of the 20th anniversary of the murder of Jill Dando, this film tells the full story behind one of Britain's most high-profile unsolved killings, as told by people at the heart of the case.

Thatcher: A Very British Revolution – BBC2 (Part of)

(BAFTA Nominee / Broadcast press Guild – Best documentary series)

Directors: Steve Condie, James Giles, James House, Pamela Gordon, Stephen Finnigan, Alice Perman

An in-depth examination of Margaret Thatcher, her rise to power, and the changes brought forth by her years in leadership. Told without narration, the story uses archive film and the testimonies of those who knew her personally, and most of all, politically. (5 x 1hr)

Icons - 72Ltd / BBC2 (Part of)

Directors: Michael Ogden, Stephen Mizelas

Eight-part history series celebrating the achievements of some of the greatest figures of the 20th century. Sanjeev Bhaskar on activists, and Lily Cole on artists and writers.

Nothing Like A Dame - Field Day / BBC2 / Cinematic release

Director: Roger Michell

Nothing Like a Dame is a unique celebration of the lives and careers of four of our most iconic actresses: Dame Eileen Atkins, Dame Judi Dench, Dame Joan Plowright and Dame Maggie Smith.

Civilisations - BBC (Part of)

Directors: Matt Hill, Ashley Geething, Ian Leese

Historians Simon Schama, Mary Beard and David Olusoga tell the story of art, from the dawn of human history to the present day. (9 x 1 hr)

Frankie Goes to Russia - ITN / BBC

Director: Jenny Dames

Comedian Frankie Boyle travels to Russia ahead of the 2018 football World Cup. Watched by a global audience of two billion people, the tournament is a big opportunity for Russians to showcase their country, culture and sporting dominance. (2 x 1hr)

The Funeral Murders - BBC

Director: Vanessa Engle

This documentary follows a dramatic and deadly series of events that took place at two funerals in Belfast in March 1988. Thirty years later, those who witnessed or were intimately connected to these events tell their stories.

Serial Killers with Piers Morgan - Plum Pictures / ITV (Part of)

Director: Kate Scholefield

Piers Morgan ventures behind bars and sits down with serial killers in a quest to discover what drives them to kill and kill again.

Inside Death Row 2018 With Trevor McDonald

Plum Pictures / ITV

Director: Stuart Cabb

Five years on from his first visit, Trevor McDonald revisits one of America's most dangerous maximum-security facilities, Indiana State Prison, where it could be the last chance to speak to the condemned men he has been unable to forget.

Louis Theroux: Talking to Anorexia – BBC2

Director: Ellena Wood

Louis Theroux embeds himself in two of London's adult eating disorder facilities and meets women of all ages and at various stages of their illness, accompanying them through their daily routine of scheduled eating, weigh-ins and group therapy sessions.

The 21st Century Race for Space - Sundog / BBC2

Director: Tom Beard

Brian Cox gains exclusive access behind the scenes at Virgin Galactic, Blue Origin and Spaceport America, exploring what is really happening in privately financed space flight.

The Cult Next Door – BBC2

Director: Vanessa Engle

The extraordinary story of a strange cult, which came to light in 2013 when news broke about three women emerging from a small flat in South London after decades in captivity.

Saving Africa's Elephants: Hugh And the Ivory War

Keo Films / BBC1

Director: Tom Beard

Two-part documentary series in which Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall explores what can be done to stop the killing of African elephants for their ivory.

Britain's Trillion Pound Island – Inside Cayman

Chalkboard / BBC2

Director: Victoria James

Jacques Peretti searches for the truth behind the British tax haven.

Love You to Death: A Year of Domestic Violence – BBC2

Director: Vanessa Engle

Documentary examining the violence inflicted by men on women every day, telling the stories of all the women who died at the hands of a male partner or ex-partner during one year.

David Beckham: For the Love of The Game - Big Earth / BBC1 (Part of)

Director: Matt Smith

David Beckham sets himself the challenge of a lifetime: playing a football match on all seven continents of the globe.

Is This Rape? Sex on Trial – BBC3

Director: Ben Anthony

24 teenagers are shown a drama about a sexual encounter and are asked to work out if it's consensual sex or if a crime has been committed.

Life After Suicide – BBC1

Director: Leo Burley

Angela Samata explores why some people take their own lives, and how those who love them come to terms with the loss.

Inside Harley Street – BBC2

Director: Vanessa Engle

Three one-hour films looking at the Clinics and patients of Harley Street and surrounding area.

Dara And Ed's Great Big Adventure - Boundless / BBC2

Director: Leo Burley

Dara O'Briain and Ed Byrne travel through Central America, from Arizona to Panama, exploring the history of the famous Pan American Highway.

Billionaire's Paradise: Inside Necker Island

Plum Pictures / BBC2

Director: Kari Lia

In depth behind the scenes look at one of the most exclusive holiday destinations in the world.

Ottolenghi's Mediterranean Island Feast - Keo Films / Ch 4

Director: James Nutt

Chef Yotam Ottolenghi explores the cuisine of the Mediterranean islands.

Welcome to the world of Weight Loss – BBC2

Director: Vanessa Engle

Looking into the world of Britain's slimming clubs.

Paul O'Grady's Working Britain – BBC1

Director: Clare Tavernor

Paul O'Grady examines what it means to be working class, and how this has changed over the years.

Stephen Fry: Out There - Maverick Television / BBC2

(Winner – RTS Awards, Best Presenter)

Director: Fergus O'Brien

Stephen Fry investigates attitudes towards homosexuality across the globe.

Kumbh Mela: The Biggest Festival on Earth

Keo Films / National Geographic

Director: Sacha Mirzoeff

Investigative journalist Diego Bunuel uncovers the heart and soul of the largest religious festival on Earth.

Chapters

020 8747 1203 | info@chapterspeople.co.uk | www.chapterspeople.co.uk

The Real Man's Road Trip: Sean & Jon Go West

Keo Films / Ch 4

Directors: Matt Reid / Ellena Wood

Comedians Sean Lock and Jon Richardson travel to Louisiana to live with Creole cowboys and Cajun swamp men to find out what makes a real man.

Wonderland: Walking with Dogs – BBC2

Director: Vanessa Engle

An exploration of the often remarkable relationship people have with their dogs.

The Queen's Palaces – BBC1

Director: Ian Leese

A celebration of exceptional buildings together with the treasures from the royal collection in 3 x 60 minute films presented by Fiona Bruce.

Hugh's Fish Fight – Save Our Seas - Keo Films / Ch 4

(Broadcasting Press Guild, Nominee – Best Factual Entertainment)

Director: Will Anderson

Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall continues his campaign for sustainable fishing.

Graffiti Wars - Two Four / Ch 4

(Winner - RTS Awards - Arts)

Director: Jane Preston

Exploring different styles of graffiti, the art form's fight with the authorities, and the rivalry within the community between freestyle legend King Robbo and media darling 'Banksy'.

Kilimanjaro – The Big Red Nose Climb – BBC1

Director: Sacha Mirzoeff

Nine celebrities climb the highest free-standing mountain in the world to raise money for BBC's comic relief appeal. (feature length documentary.)

The Secret Life of the Berlin Wall - Diverse / BBC2

Director: Kevin Sim

Twenty years after the collapse of the Berlin wall, this film looks at how lives were affected on both sides of the divide.

MA in Media Production (Specialising in location sound recording)

Northern Media School, Sheffield.